

2018 BRADLEY T. BOWLES SCHOLARSHIP

---

DESCRIPTION OF THE AWARD

Bradley Bowles was born and raised in West Vancouver. He graduated from West Vancouver Secondary School in 1983. Brad was a sports enthusiast and had a great love for life. His positive attitude always inspired others to strive for greatness. Winning was never as important as making sure everyone got a chance to play. Tragically, Brad passed away at 26 years old of heart disease and at that time Brad's family established the Bradley T. Bowles Scholarship Fund in his memory.

Administered by the West Vancouver Community Foundation, this $1000 scholarship is awarded to a student who possesses the character and qualities exemplified by Brad Bowles: enthusiasm and school spirit, superior athletic commitment, demonstrated academic effort, camaraderie and team spirit.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

In order to be considered for the Bradley T. Bowles Scholarship, a student must:

- Be a resident of West Vancouver;
- Enrolled and attending West Vancouver Secondary School
- Enrollment in a post-secondary institution in B.C.

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Superior athletic performance
- Evidence of community service and school spirit
- Demonstrated academic effort
